

Conference on R2P and the ICC

Chicago, IL (March 15, 2008) The R2P Coalition is pleased to announce the publication of the "Responsibility to Protect and the International Criminal Court: America's New Priorities" conference report. The conference, held on 5-7 December 2007, was hosted by the Center for International Human Rights at Northwestern University School of Law. The three-day event focused on how R2P can be advanced with US engagement with and participation in the ICC, as well as how to begin laying the foundations for the development of an International Marshall Service. Click here to view the report.